Black, Indigenous and other people of color; people living in poverty; LGBTQ people; elders; people with disabilities and other people targeted by oppression are affected by sexual violence in significant and complex ways; and

WHEREAS, Statewide, 29% of the survivors who were supported by a community sexual assault organization identified as Black, Indigenous and people of color in 2019. Of those identifying ethnicity, 21% identified as Latinx/Hispanic; and

WHEREAS, King County is home to many organizations that provide culturally- and linguistically-specific services for survivors from various racial, ethnic, faith, and cultural communities, survivors who are immigrants and refugees, survivors who are LGBTQ, and survivors with disabilities. These culturally-specific services are critical to effectively respond to the specific needs and barriers many survivors face; and

WHEREAS, Negative impacts of sexual violence trauma on women, men, children and youth include fear, concern for safety, symptoms of post-traumatic stress disorder, injury, and missed work or school; and

WHEREAS, Working together as a community, we can alleviate the trauma of sexual violence by ensuring supportive resources are available to all survivors, while standing up to harmful attitudes and behaviors that contribute to sexual assault.

Now, I, David Baker, Mayor of the City of Kenmore, on behalf of the City Council join advocates and communities throughout King County in taking action to prevent sexual violence by standing with survivors and proclaiming April 2021 SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS MONTH.
